

Ruth Williams $2,500 Bursary Application

ANTCO has developed an annual award to honor the legacy of former CEO and Order of BC recipient, Ruth Williams. This bursary is for students that are pursuing post-secondary education and/or entrepreneurial related activities. The bursary is open to Indigenous students residing in or originally from British Columbia.

Entrepreneurial activities would include starting a business venture, assistance with formal business planning, marketing, and other similar start-up costs. Applicants applying for entrepreneurial activities are expected to have progressed from the idea stage to the implementation stage of their plan.

Deadline for applications is June 1. Submit your application to antco@antco.ca

Application Checklist

- Application form completed in full and signed
- Evidence of Indigenous ancestry
- Grade 12 transcript and current post-secondary transcript if applicable
- Evidence of upcoming post-secondary school and/or start-up of business
 - If applicable, include any business planning documents you deem relevant
- A (maximum) two-page description of your future goals and aspirations
- 1 letter of recommendation

Last name _____ Middle name _____ First name _____

Home address _____

Mailing address (if different than above) _____

Home phone _____ Cell phone _____

Email address _____

Indigenous ancestry (please provide relevant documentation)

- Status
- Non-Status
- Metis
- Inuit

The information I have provided in my application is true and complete. If I am a successful applicant, I agree to allow ANTCO to publish my name in their newsletter, annual report and/or social media accounts.

Applicant Signature

Date